I. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS

Nothing to report.

II. OTHER ACTIVITIES

1. [] USIA, on 22 January to discuss the possibility of developing a special training course for selected USIA personnel. There apparently is some dissatisfaction with the coverage which is being provided at the FSI "Strategy and Tactics" course. [] met again with [] and several USIA Division Chiefs on 29 January to further explore USIA's requirements. It was agreed that SIC would submit a proposed three-week schedule, four afternoons per week, for additional USIA comment. If this informal proposal is acceptable, USIA will submit a formal requirement for the course. It would be presented on USIA premises for about twenty-five people.

2. [] presented a short briefing on the program of SIC at the DDP Training Officers meeting on 28 January. This served to not only explain SIC's activities, but possibly to initiate discussions as to how SIC might better serve the current requirements of DDP in this field.

3. [] gave SIC's first presentation at Air Command and Staff College on 28 January, covering "Communist Doctrine From Marx to Mao." He felt that covering this subject before an audience of 800 was a major pedagogical challenge, but that informal comments indicated it had gone over reasonably well.
